

Graciela Laura Kaminsky
Department of Economics
George Washington University
Washington, D.C. 20052
e-mail: graciela@gwu.edu
webpage: <https://www.gracielakaminsky.com>
Google Scholar
Ideas/Repec

Graciela L. Kaminsky is a professor of Economics and International Affairs at George Washington University and a Research Associate at the National Bureau of Economic Research. She previously held positions as an assistant professor at the University of California, San Diego and as a staff economist at the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. She has been a Visiting Scholar at numerous government organizations, including the Bank of Japan, the Bank of Spain, the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, the Hong Kong Monetary Authority, and the Central Bank of France. She has also been a consultant to many international institutions, including the Inter-American Development Bank, the International Monetary Fund, and the World Bank. She holds a Ph.D. in Economics from MIT. Professor Kaminsky has published widely in leading academic journals, including the American Economic Review, the Journal of Development Economics, the Journal of International Economics, the Journal of Monetary Economics, and the Journal of Economic Perspectives. Her research has been featured in the financial press, such as The Economist, The Financial Times, and Business Week. Professor Kaminsky's research covers a variety of topics in macroeconomics and international finance, including financial globalization, mutual fund's investment strategy, currency and banking crises, sovereign debt crises, contagion, credibility, and inflation stabilization policies.